Mark Pancrazio joins Cipparone & Zaccaro, P.C. & Opens office in Woodbury

Woodbury, Conn. – April 27, 2016 - Mark Pancrazio, of Woodbury, an attorney with more than 20 years of experience, has joined the law firm of Cipparone & Zaccaro, P.C., and has opened an office at the Wells Fargo Building, 1 Sherman Hill Road (at the corner of Routes 6 and 64), Second Floor, Suite 3A-40 in Woodbury.

Pancrazio, a partner and shareholder at the firm, focuses his practice on real estate transactions, estate planning, probate litigation, trust and estate administration, elder law and Medicaid planning.

“Although part of my practice has always been devoted to estate planning, estate administration and probate court work, I’m devoting a much larger part of my practice to these areas because I’ve learned that my clients need help with them,” Pancrazio said. “The aging population in Woodbury and surrounding towns offers my new firm and me enormous opportunities to use our experience to assist them. I’m excited to be with a firm that places a high priority on the needs of our aging population and looking forward to servicing Woodbury and the surrounding towns with the power of such a dynamic law firm.”

Pancrazio earned his Juris Doctorate at the University of Connecticut School of Law and his Bachelor’s Degree in political science from Central Connecticut State University. He began his legal career clerking for the Connecticut Superior Courts. After that, he worked as an attorney for Connecticut Legal Services in Middletown. From 1994 to 2011, he practiced law in a firm in New Fairfield. In May of 2011, he established a solo practice. In September of 2013, he joined the firm of Mix & Goldman, LLC in Danbury, where he remained until assuming his current position at Cipparone & Zaccaro, P.C.

Pancrazio is no stranger to the Woodbury community. A town resident since 1994, he served two years as president of the Men’s Club of St. Teresa of Avila Catholic Church. In addition, he was the retreat chairperson for five years. In 2009, he was elected to the church’s parish council where he served for six years.

In 2013, Pancrazio began volunteering at the Overflow Homeless Shelter at the First Congregational Church in Danbury. In January of 2015, he started working at a mission for the homeless in Boston. He also is a former member of the Northern Fairfield County Chapter of the United Way of Western Connecticut.

In addition to his active community service record, Pancrazio also has held leadership positions in several Western Connecticut professional groups. He is a former president of the Fairfield County Business Club and served as a member of that networking group from 1999 to 2013. In 2015, he was president of the Greater Danbury Business Association. He has been a member of Membership Success, a BNI chapter in Brookfield, since 2014. From 2011 to 2013, he was a member of the Western Connecticut Senior Alliance, where he worked with a team of professionals who provided services and educational resources geared towards helping seniors and their caregivers.

When he's not practicing law or giving back to the community, Pancrazio enjoys singing and performing in the Woodbury-based rock band, Root Six.

He and his wife, Linda, have two daughters, Julia, a student at the University of Rhode Island, and Celina, a student at Nonnewaug High School.
